When do we get to seize this:
>The Chinese have recently purchased over 180,000 acres of Texas ranch land near the runway of the US's largest pilot training base for the Air Force. Standing at the their front gate on a recent reconnaissance trip, I couldn't believe we allowed these purchases under CFIUS.
This ranch land also sits on the US border with Mexico and boasts a 30,000 sq ft lodge and a private runway which helps the Chinese owners ferry people and cargo in and out of the border region with limited to no oversight by US authorities. This must STOP

Had to explain this situation to my old man, if I say "a rock will fall" and something happens that can be Loosly connected to that prediction that does not make me a prophet or an "insider", it makes me a con artist/snake oil salesmen. Hence why I'm asking him for something solid.
